Re: United States v. Yehuda Belsky
Criminal Docket No. 18-CR-00504 (ARR)

Dear Judge Ross:

The government respectfully submits this letter to update the Court regarding restitution in the above-referenced matter. At the January 3, 2020 phone conference, the Court directed the parties to advise the Court if the restitution issues had been resolved, and if not, to submit briefs on the issue by January 17, 2020.

Although the parties have not resolved all of the restitution issues, we have made meaningful progress and have reached agreement on the restitution amount for one of the victims. We are continuing to discuss the remaining five victims, and are in the process of verifying facts and documentation regarding several of them.

Therefore, we ask the Court for an extension of the January 17, 2020 deadline to enable the parties to continue to work towards resolution. The parties request that we advise the Court of the parties' progress or submit briefing on the issue by January 24, 2020.

Defense counsel joins in this request.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD P. DONOGHUE
United States Attorney
Eastern District of New York
